

Family Communication

A presentation by Dan Fox, LPC & Jenny Key, LCSW

Where: Douglass Elementary School

When: Wednesday, October 9, 2013

Time: 6:30-8:00 p.m

Cost: FREE!

What:

This is an opportunity for parents to learn effective communication strategies that will reduce conflict and enhance relationships. We will also be offering three lunch time follow-up sessions to help parents master these skills from 12:00-1:00pm on Tuesday October 15, 22, & 29.

Who:

- Dan Fox, LPC: For the past 15 years, Dan has positively impacted youth as a school counselor, classroom teacher, high school principal, adjunct professor and psychotherapist. He is currently supervising staff at a residential program for young adults and in private practice in Boulder, serving teenagers, young adults, and families.
- Jenny Key, LCSW: Jenny is a licensed clinical social worker who has been working with children and families since 1999. Jenny practices traditional therapy methods, but has also found that many children experience significant, positive change while interacting with animals. Jenny's practice includes equine and animal therapies.

To download the handout:

<http://boulderpsychologicalservices.com/handout/304/family-communication>

SPONSORED BY:

Douglass Elementary PTO

